Chiefs Of Big Three Map Defense Plan

First In Series Of Sessions

Paris, Nov. 28—(AP)—The big three soldiers of the west today started mapping a 3,500 mile defense arc across Europe from the Norwegian Arctic to the Aegean Sea.

The chiefs of staff of the United States, Britain and France met in the first of a series of sessions to complete a unified defense plan for the 12 nations of the North Atlantic pact.

Simultaneously, it was announced from Frankfurt, Germany, that U.S. Gen. Thomas T. Handy, 58-year-old veteran war planner, will be chief of the billion dollar American arms aid program in Europe. He is now commander of U.S. forces in Europe with headquarters at Heidelberg.

Ready For Emergency

At the same time U.S. Defense Secretary Louis Johnson declared on arriving in London that U.S. forces in Germany are "ready for any emergency that might be thrust upon them."

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff, presided at the meeting of the chiefs of staff. Their task is to work out a cooperative defense plan. The act of congress setting up the military aid program said the money, other than $1,000,000,000 for immediate aid, would be released only after the Atlantic pact nations had agreed on a common defense plan.

The chiefs met for three hours in the historic naval ministry. No communiqué was issued. At 10 a.m. tomorrow they will join the other nine members of the Atlantic pact.

Agree On Technical Plan

After the 12 chiefs have agreed on a technical plan in terms of numbers of tanks and tons of shells needed to meet any lunge by the Soviet army, they will go before a meeting of the 12 defense ministers here on Thursday for a political okay.

Among items high on the military chiefs' agenda was the question of where the west would plan its defense—along the Elbe in Germany at the line of the present Iron Curtain, along the Rhine at France's very border or behind the Pyrenees at the Spanish frontier.

France would be stirred by any decision to adopt a line that would mean her abandonment to occupation by an invader.

Other questions were the contribution western Germany can make against any Communist aggression, and how the five-power Brussels alliance of Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg can be dovetailed into the Atlantic pact.

O'Dwyer Enters Hospital For Rest On Doctor's Order

New York, Nov. 28—(AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer entered Bellevue hospital tonight on the order of physicians for an "absolute and complete rest."

The physicians, Dr. Edward Berner and Dr. Clarence De La Chapelle, said the mayor evidently was suffering from "almost complete nervous and physical exhaustion."

The mayor's office announced that the decision to hospitalize the mayor came after an examination by the two physicians of O'Dwyer at Gracie Mansion.

Because facilities were not available immediately at a private hospital, the mayor's office said, it was decided to take the mayor to Bellevue, a city institution.

About a year ago the 59-year-old mayor was hospitalized for treatment of what was described as "a slight heart condition."

Later it was announced that an examination showed him to be in sound physical condition.

Impanel 2nd Grand Jury In Probe Of Kansas City Crime

Kansas City, Nov. 28—(AP)—A double-barreled federal investigation of criminal elements in Kansas City was indicated today with the impaneling of a second grand jury here.

One federal grand jury reconvened today after a holiday recess. That group has been questioning witnesses in the probe of gang killings and other general criminal activities here. The second jury had been expected to concentrate on anti-trust cases.

Speaking to the second panel today, Judge Albert A. Ridge said it may be called upon to participate in the war against the organized underworld being waged by the original grand jury.

Report 2nd U. S. Ship Shelled By Nationals

Washington, Nov. 28—(AP)—A second American merchant ship reported it was shelled and damaged by Chinese nationalist warships today, and the state department announced it will immediately file an energetic protest.

The cargo vessel Sir John Franklin, which was fired at by two nationalist ships and hit 12 times during an hour-long barrage at close range. All aboard escaped injury, however.

The incident, which occurred at the mouth of the Yangtze river near communist-held Shanghai, was the second within two weeks against an American ship in that area.

Both vessels are operated by the Isbrandtsen Line of New York, which runs a round-the-world service.

The one involved in the earlier incident was the Flying Cloud. It was shelled by nationalist warships on Nov. 15.

A state department protest to the tottering nationalist government on that incident has brought no response. The United States has refused to recognize the nationalist order closing major communist-held ports in China to international commerce.

The Sir John Franklin, involved in the second shelling, was enroute from Hong Kong to Shanghai, which is covered by the nationalist blockade order.

Her master, Capt. Warren Harding, 32, of Ardsley-on-Hudson, N. Y., radioed reports relayed to the state department.

Harding said the attack took place about 5 a.m. today Shanghai time (3 a.m. CST). A first garbled message left some doubt as to the source of the attack, but a subsequent one said:

"Passing over bar of the Yangtze received an order from a Chinese destroyer escort to stop and anchor. Replied: 'Cannot anchor here. shallow water. Board us while under way, or accompany us to deep water anchorage and then board us.'"

"Two Chinese warships thereupon opened fire at point blank range, broadside 500 yards (words garbled) on ship. Under constant barrage about an hour. No warning shot across bow."

"Proceeded across bar and when reached deep water stopped engine and signalled pursuing warship were anchoring. He kept shooting, therefore we went ahead again. Anchored across Woesung 1830 (6:30 p.m. Shanghai time). No personnel injured."

The defense lawyer acknowledged that Miss Campbell arranged to get additional persons on "Thomas" payroll, but insisted she did so only at the congressman's direction. The government charges their salaries were kicked back to Thomas and that they did not work.

Stoddard talked to about 100 welfare and civic leaders comprising the Illinois committee named by Governor Stevenson to do spadework for the December, 1950, conference. The committee met to organize and lay plans.

"We know much more about childhood than we do about the difficult period from the early teens to the early 20's," Stoddard said.

He told the committee new contributions in social and scientific knowledge were needed to deal adequately with teen years' educational and vocational maladjustments, and problems involving crime, delinquency and nervousness.

Secretary States Thomas Compelled Her To Pad Payroll

Washington, Nov. 28—(AP)—A former secretary of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.), who went on trial with him today on payroll padding charges, acted under "Thomas' compulsion" and she voluntarily took her story to the FBI, her lawyer asserted.

The one-time secretary, Miss Helen Campbell, 63, is a co-defendant with Thomas on charges of defrauding the government by falsifying Thomas' congressional payroll.

As the trial began, Miss Campbell's attorney, John R. Fitzpatrick, told the jury in federal court:

"She did what she did under the compulsion of the employer-employee relationship, not as a result of any conspiracy with her employer. It might have been to keep her job."

Fitzpatrick said Miss Campbell will testify freely when she takes the witness stand.

The defense lawyer acknowledged that Miss Campbell arranged to get additional persons on "Thomas" payroll, but insisted she did so only at the congressman's direction. The government charges their salaries were kicked back to Thomas and that they did not work.

Doctors who performed 13 unsuccessful operations for cancer say the second meeting is only a few months away.

She was helped off a transatlantic plane at London airport today. Her three children, cuddling their toys, came close behind her.

Her husband, a disabled war veteran, is still in Canada. She said he hopes to sell her belongings and reach England in time for the family gathering at Christmas.

As the children, John, 3; James, 6, and Jean, 2, played on the floor of the airport's lounge, Mrs. Irving told reporters:

"I only want to be left alone quietly for the rest of my days. I always wanted to come back for a visit but we couldn't afford it until now."

GRAINS WEAKEN AS MARKET CLOSES

Chicago, Nov. 28—(AP)—Grains buying slackened today after many new peaks were scored in the opening minutes on the board of trade. With the demand falling off sharply, prices retreated and in some cases fell under the previous close.

Weakest spot on the board was soybeans, which had losses extending to around 2 cents at times. Rather mild weather in the Midwest acted as a depressing influence on soybean meal, and the lack of demand for this commodity caused easiness in bean futures.

Strongest contracts on the board were May and July oats, which advanced around a cent at times. This is a good grain for cereals selling a slow as oats. Traders said buying apparently was based on the theory these deliveries were too low in relation to the December and cash prices.

Receipts were: wheat 9 cars, corn 106, oats 33, rye 1, barley 14, soybeans 34.

Wheat closed 1 lower to 1 higher. December $2.16-2.17, corn was 1 lower to 1 higher. December $1.30-1.31, oats were 1-1 1/2 higher, December 77, rye was 1 to 1 cent higher. December $1.37-1.38, soybeans were 1 to 1 1/2 lower, December $2.29-2.30, and land was 7 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $10.32.

G.A.R. CIRCLE TO MEET
The Edward Gallagher Circle, No. 122, Ladies of the G.A.R., will hold its regular business meeting Thursday at 2 p. m. at the American Legion Home.

New York Stock
Market

New York, Nov. 28—(AP)—The stock market slid gently downhill today with only infrequent braking action.

Declines generally were held to fractions with some ranging around a point. Not much speed was generated at any time, and total transfers ran only to around 1,100,000 shares, well under last Friday's pace.

Selected issues resisted the downward trend in early dealings but most of them joined in the retreat later. Occasional comebacks here and there reduced the day's losses.

Corporate issues showed only minor changes in the bond market.

Now It's Frozen
Christmas Trees

Los Angeles, Nov. 28—(AP)—Like a frozen tree this Christmas? See sculptor Tommy Sherbloom. He's taking orders.

Sherbloom, who chisels ice instead of stone, hangs ornaments and electric lights on a tree then freezes it within a block of ice. He trims the ice to the exact shape of the tree, plugs in the lights, and behold—a sparkling crystal decoration. Such trees last six to 10 hours.

YALE WILL MOUNT
GARGANTUA'S BODY

Sarasota, Fla., Nov. 28—(AP)—Gargantua's huge body will go to Yale University for mounting and display. Johns Hopkins university and the State of Florida wanted it, but Yale was promised the 550-pound circus gorilla's body at the time he was bought.

The gorilla's body now is at Johns Hopkins, where it was sent for an autopsy.

PLANTS HAVE TWINS TOO

Berkeley, Calif. — (AP) — Tobacco plants have twins and triplets, and at about the same rate as people. A seed that will produce two or three seedlings usually happens about once in every thousand, says Dr. D. R. Cameron, University of California geneticist. Checking some 100,000 seedlings since 1938, Cameron has found 120 twins and 16 triplets.

The rate can be increased, he reports, by selection.

Deer Hunter Seeks Aid Of Wardens To Regain Pet

Brodhead, Wis., Nov. 28—(P)—It may take conservation officers of two states to help Mrs. Orville Miller complete her private deer hunt. Mrs. Miller's pet albino deer, a 10-point white buck named Bucko, leaped the farm fence about three weeks ago and disappeared. Several days later he was reported on the Kilbourn school playground at Rockford, Ill. Mrs. Miller set out in pursuit. She reported that she finally found her pet on the Burritt, Ill., farm of C. T. Cannell, 10 miles north of Rockford. But, she said, Cannell refused to part with the animal. As a result, Mrs. Miller said she now must ask the Green county, Wis., conservation warden to contact wardens of Winnebago county in Illinois to try to arrange for Bucko's return. Mrs. Miller said she has kept Bucko since he wandered onto her farm two years ago. She later secured a deer farm license from the state in order to keep him.

Good-bye to the common cold?

If you begin to take them at the first sign of a cold, certain new anti-histamine tablets will likely kill your cold within 36 hours. They will also prevent the sneezing, coughing, and runny noses that spread infection to others. And they are not limited to expensive prescriptions; the government permits their direct sale to the public in drug stores.

In December Reader's Digest, Paul de Kruif tells how this new drug was developed...how it has been tested both as a cure AND as a preventive.

Vows Exchanged By Bernice Hempel And George Balzer

A nuptial high Mass was performed at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary's Catholic church in Rock Island, uniting Miss Bernice Hempel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Hempel of Rock Island, formerly of this city, and George A. Balzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Balzer of Davenport.

Rev. George Schroeder officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white baby chrysanthemums and ferns. A male quartet sang, accompanied by Miss Donna Figel at the organ.

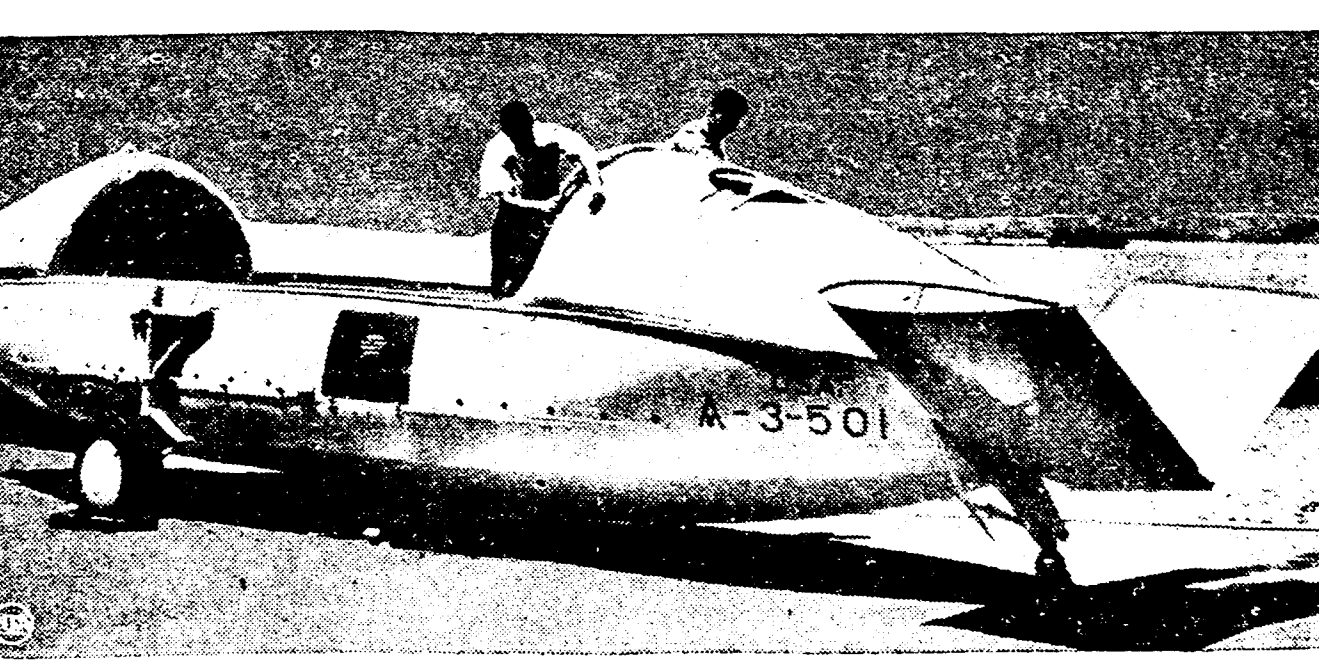

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white chiffon velvet fashioned with a round net yolk edged with a shirred band to give a drop-shoulder effect. The fitted bodice extended into a full skirt and long train. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a braided satin head-piece trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

The maid of honor, Miss Joyce Hempel, sister of the bride, wore a forest green taffeta gown and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. David Showalter, Davenport, who attended as bridesmatron, wore an identical gown. The junior bridesmaids, the Misses Dorothy Balzer, Davenport, sister of the bridegroom, and Alicia Marie Fitzpatrick, Jacksonville, wore gold taffeta gowns and carried rust chrysanthemums. Gene Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bell, Davenport, served as ring-bearer.

The best man was Eugene Balzer, Davenport, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Neil Kleiber, Rock Island, David Showalter and Sivert Logan, both of Davenport.

A wedding breakfast for the bride and immediate families was served in the Watch Tower inn. During the afternoon a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents. A centerpiece of green and gold decorated the bridal table. A hundred and fifty guests attended. The couple will reside at 1132 East Central Park avenue, Davenport.

The bride is a graduate of Rock Island high school and is affiliated with unit 1, Nu Phi Mu. She is employed in the financial department of the head office of Modern Woodman of America, Rock Island. Mr. Balzer was graduated from Davenport high school and his profession is contracting.

THIRSTY BURGLAR SNATCHES BOTTLE FULL OF NOTHING

There is an angry, red-faced burglar walking the streets of Jacksonville today, and he has a reason for being mad.

Sometime early this morning the burglar placed a large piece of concrete in a handkerchief and tossed it through a five by five foot window at the Bud & Glenn tavern on North Main street.

After smashing the window the thief reached through the opening and snatched a fifth of what he thought was a popular brand of whisky.

Dashing into an alley he made his escape, but upon opening the bottle he discovered that it was empty, it being a "dummy" used for advertising purposes.

Lt. Howard Stout and Patrolman Harold Spencer investigated the burglary and questioned one suspect.

been in ill health for the last year. Mr. Kistler was a resident of Palmyra for 35 years.

Surviving him are his wife; son, Harold of White Hall; a stepson, Homer Weatherford of Springfield; three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a brother, Earl of Carrollton.

Services will be at 1 p. m. Tuesday in the Struts Funeral Home here, with Rev. Russell Bowers officiating. Burial will be in White Hall cemetery.

Notre Dame Lands Four Berths On AP All-Midwestern Team

Chicago, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Mighty Notre Dame landed four berths today to monopolize the 1949 all-midwestern football team selected by The Associated Press.

The only other school to take more than one position on the honor squad was another top national ranking outfit, Oklahoma, with two.

One spot each went to Wisconsin, Michigan State, Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois.

Two of Notre Dame's selections—end Leon Hart and fullback Emil Sitko—were the lone holdovers from

Sweetness Prevails At First Session Of PGA Meeting

Southern Pines, N. C., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Sweetness and light prevailed today—the first of a three-day Professional Golfers Association of America meeting—but look out for tomorrow and Wednesday.

The 33rd annual PGA meeting began with handshaking and routine committee reports and was topped off by a banquet tonight honoring Sam Snead as "the professional of the year."

Impending tomorrow, however, is the consideration of 23 resolutions which would change the PGA constitution. Some of these have to do with prize money and its distribution. Professional golfers do not always agree in these matters.

As it stands now, here are some of the more choice items pending: The Carolina section would restrict the play of the PGA tournament bureau's manager to the PGA and Master's events, as far as PGA-sponsored play is concerned. It would also prohibit the manager from being on the advisory staff of any manufacturer.

The Minnesota section would make a regular tournament player eligible for PGA membership after two years on the circuit.

Four Teams Share Top Honors In All-Missouri II

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Champion Detroit, Oklahoma A. & M., Drake and Wichita took the top honors on the 1949 All-Missouri valley conference football team.

Detroit, the conference leader in its first year of valley competition, placed three men on the first team. Drake, second place finisher, drew a similar allotment.

But the dethroned Aggies bettered both Detroit and Drake in the selections made for the Associated Press by the conference coaches. The Aggies were awarded four positions. Wichita's scampy little Jimmy Nutter, leading conference scorer from his halfback spot, was chosen as the eleventh member.

Sophomore John Bright of Drake and two seniors, Mike Kayserian of Detroit and Jack Hartman of Oklahoma A. & M., were named to team with Nutter in the backfield.

Bright finished as the nation's total offense leader among major schools with 1,950 yards, distributed evenly between rushing and passing.

Five Ordered Held To The Grand Jury For Shoplifting

Atlanta, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Two men and three women charged with shoplifting thousands of dollars worth of clothing and jewelry from department stores, were ordered held for grand jury action today.

U. S. Commissioner Frank Holden said the five were held for allegedly transporting stolen goods in interstate commerce. Federal officers raided the five through several states before joining Atlanta officers in making the arrests Saturday.

FBI agents estimated the quintet took $10,000 worth of clothing and other items from Atlanta stores in three days, placed the goods in boxes and shipped them to Chicago.

Detective Sgt. Bill Lyle said another $3,000 worth of stolen items was found in hidden compartments in three automobiles which the five used.

Millikin Hoopsters Prep For Opener

Millikin eagles are rounding out their fourth week of practice as they prepare to open the 1949-50 season with Ill. Normal on December 2. With the shortened Thanksgiving week, Coach Ralph Allen has only a few sessions with his boys before the first Big Blue encounter.

In basketball, Millikin finds its greatest potential for a conference championship. In 1946-47 they took the Little Nine crown and two years ago they shared the top honors. Last year the Blue finished the season with eight defeats of five points or less among their 12 wins and 11 losses.

Missouri Selected To Meet Maryland In 'Gator Bowl'

New York, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Missouri will meet Maryland in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., producing a "teacher" vs "pupil" clash in the New Year's Day fixture.

With thrice-beaten Missouri and once-defeated Maryland in the Gator fold, the major bowl lineup for Jan. 2 now has been completed. The announcement that Missouri and Maryland had accepted bids was made today.

The other lucrative, big time pairings pit Ohio State vs California in the Pasadena Rose Bowl; Oklahoma vs Louisiana State in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl; North Carolina vs Rice in the Dallas Cotton Bowl; and Santa Clara vs Kentucky in the Miami Orange Bowl.

This will be the fifth trip to the bowl wars for the Missouri Tigers, which has been well secured in New Year's Day appearances.

Missouri's record shows four defeats in as many tries. Maryland made its one and only previous post-season jaunt to the Gator affair in 1948 when it tied Georgia, 20-20.

Last Jan. 1, in the same Gator event, Missouri was clipped by Clemson, 24-23. In 1940 Missouri lost to Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl, 21-7. In 1942, Fordham nipped Missouri, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl; and in 1946, Texas clawed Missouri, 40-27, in the Cotton Bowl.

Bookmakers' War Seems In Making In Betting Coup

New York, Nov. 28.—(AP)—A bookmakers' war appeared in the making today following the disclosure of a big betting coup engineered by New Jersey bookies at the expense of their ambulatory brothers in New York.

Some New York bookies, among those who lost best estimated at a half million dollars in the recent most valuable player polls in baseball, are crying "double cross" and refusing to pay off.

They claim that advance notice of the American league's choice of Ted Williams had leaked out and the betting boys from across the river pulled a fast one on them.

On the other hand, the Jersey oddsmakers insist they are entitled to the money they claim rightfully belongs to them. All of which adds up to a prospective battle of the bulging bankrolls.

Williams Picked Most Valuable In American League

Chicago, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Boston's Ted Williams, elected that he was chosen the American league's most valuable player for 1949, said today three other players were as deserving—if not more so—of the honor than himself.

He named Phil Rizzuto, New York shortstop; Joe Page, Yankee ace relief pitcher, and Mel Parnell, Red Sox southpaw, as the men he thought should get the nod.

Rizzuto was second to Williams in the baseball writers' association poll while Page was third and Parnell fourth.

Williams, sandwiching in time for champions tonight between hunting the annual 4-H club banquet of ing trips, said he was "very disappointed" in not winning the A. L. batting title. Detroit's George Kell shaded him with a 342.9 percentage to 342.7.

Asked which he would rather have, the batting crown or most valuable honor, Williams said:

"Deep in my heart, winning the batting championship means a lot because it is something you do yourself—not something that is handed to you. But I certainly am very happy to be chosen most valuable."

In 1915, Robert F. Roth of Chicago and Cleveland won the American league home run championship with seven circuit clouts.

Syracuse University's boxing team, defending champions, will be host to the national intercollegiate tournament, March 10 and 11, 1950.

GOLF EDITOR DIES

Chicago, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Fred W. Proctor, longtime golf editor of the Chicago Herald American, died today at the age of 74 after a prolonged illness. He had covered national and western golf events from 1917 to 1946.

Clinton Is Defending Central Cage Titlist

Coach Frankie Leach's Clinton Maroons have been the defending champions in the Central basketball conference for the last two seasons.

The Clinton team also copped the title in 1940 with the famous playing of Gene Vance who went on to star at the University of Illinois as a member of the famed Whiz Kids in 1943. The Clinton five opens its Central loop season at Carlinville December 9 with Coach Howard Lester's Cavaliers.

The Maroons play at Feitshans Dec. 13 in another conference game and play in the Normal Holiday tourney.

Beardstown, Jacksonville, Feitshans, Lanphier, Clinton and Carlinville comprise the Central conference. Beardstown won titles in 1938, the first season of competition and in 1946 and 1947. Lanphier won in 1939 and 1942 while Feitshans won in 1941, winning the Decatur Sectional prize and losing to 1942.

Champion Eagles Mark Time Waiting Playoff Opponent's Emergence

New York, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles, national football league eastern titleholders, marked time today waiting for their championship playoff opponent to emerge from the western division.

They won a third straight eastern flag yesterday in downing the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34 to 17.

In the All-American conference, the San Francisco 49ers tounded the New York Giants, 35 to 14, to finish second.

The 49ers clash again at home next Sunday with the Yankees in

Joe Gordon Asks Cleveland For His Outright Release

Eugene Gordon, Cleveland Indians' second baseman, said today he had asked Cleveland for his outright release.

Gordon, who winters at his home here, said he preferred to play in the Coast league next season, preferably at Portland.

Gordon, once known as the "Flash," went up to the majors in 1938 and starred for the New York Yankees until 1947. He was named to several American league all-star teams. He went to Cleveland in 1947. Now 34, his hitting slumped in the 1948 season.

He told an interviewer here that there was no ill will between him and the Cleveland management. He insisted he wanted to make the move to be closer to his home.

"I naturally expect to lose money in the event I am able to stay on the coast, but that doesn't enter into the situation," Gordon said.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Hog prices lost 25 to 50 cents today under pressure of the heaviest supply since last Jan. 3. Cattle were steady to 50 cents higher, but lambs were 75 cents to $1.00 down, yearlings weak to 50 cents off, and ewes weak.

Barrows and gilts grading good and choice sold mostly at $15.25 to $16.00, although some choice kinds reached $16.25 and $16.35, the sparsely paid top. Sows took $12.00 to $14.00 mainly and a top for a few at $14.25.

Choice steers were scarce at $36.00 to $39.00 and good to low-choice offerings found outlet at $28.00 to $34.50. A load of choice fed heifers topped at $32.25, medium to low-choice grades getting $21.50 to $29.00. Beef cows topped at $18.50, a few sausage bulls at $19.50, and choice vealers at $26.00.

The practical top on woolled lambs was $23.25, extremes only going to $23.50. Yearlings topped at $20.50, native ewes at $10.50, and western ewes at $12.50.

Included in the overnight run were an estimated 24,000 hogs on sale, 14,000 cattle, 700 calves, and 7,500 sheep.

By Bob Merris

Jimmy Buckley, local amateur golfer of note, brings us the latest word on Jerry Barber, Jacksonville's gift to professional golf circles. It seems that Jerry is doing O.K. in the play for play ranks. He's now touring the California circuit.

In the Richmond — California that is—Open, Jerry finished ahead of such golf patriarchs as Jim Ferrier, Bill Nary, Elsworth Vines and Dick Metz as he won the second-place trophy. That meet was won by Art Bell, a Los Angeles boy, who nosed Jerry out by a single stroke.

At the Santa Anita Open, he finished fourth with rounds of 70, 68 and 70 for a 34-hold total of 208. That tournament was annexed by Marty Furgol.

Barber was the low professional in the Arrow Head pro-amateur tournament. He tied with Elsworth Vines for that honor by firing a 68, four under par.

Because of a recently perfected golfing aid known as the "Jerry Barber glove," he has become known as the "man in the glove" by California sports scribes.

Carnival Worker Tells Of Murder Of Teen-Age Wife

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 28.—(AP)—An Arkansas state police sergeant said tonight a young carnival worker had confessed slaying his teenage wife and throwing her body in a bayou near Batop, La.

Sgt. J. H. Porterfield said William "Bully" Kidd, 21, a transient, told him the bizarre story as he was being transported to the Arkansas penitentiary to begin a three-year sentence for burglary.

Porterfield said officers at Batop were not aware of any such slaying and reported that no body had been found.

Later tonight Kidd said he "would be glad to go back to Louisiana" to help officers locate the body of his young wife.

Sergeant Porterfield said Kidd told this story:

He bigamously married Eunice Cruss of Olla, La., in October while he was with a street carnival. Later he found his wife keeping company with two strange men. A fight resulted in which he slugged one of the men and stabbed the other with a knife. He was arrested but later released.

After reaching Batop he took his wife for a drive on a country road. He beat her with his fists, shot her once and then threw her body in a nearby bayou.

He left the show, went to Memphis, Tenn., and met Richard Allen, 21, of Chicago. They traveled throughout the midwest, were arrested on a vagrancy charge at Wichita, Kas., but were released. Later they were arrested at Marcellus, Ill., but broke jail and returned to Arkansas.

Sergeant Porterfield said the two men were arrested in Prescott, Ark., Friday night several hours after burglarizing a store. They pleaded guilty and each was sentenced to three years in the Arkansas penitentiary.

CAN THE CAMPUS REVIVE THE THEATER?

Santa Barbara, Calif., —(AP)—The campus theater may be the most promising answer to the decline of the professional stage, says a California critic.

The college and university playhouse offers a chance for new plays and writers because it has less box office pressure to think about, says Theodore Hatton, chairman of the Department of Speech at Santa Barbara College.

Lou Boudreau Gets Vote Of Confidence From New Owners

Cleveland, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Shortstop Manager Lou Boudreau got a vote of confidence today from the Cleveland Indians' new management.

Then Lou expressed the same satisfaction in his own infield for the coming season. He wants Joe Gordon back at second base, Kenny Keltner at third at least part of the time, and himself at shortstop.

But as Boudreau talked with reporters, Gordon told a reporter at his home in Eugene, Oregon, he had asked the Indians to give him his outright release.

Gordon said he wants to join the Pacific Coast League, preferably Portland, to be closer to his home.

Here in Cleveland, Boudreau talked as if he was willing to take a fairly paid hand with his veterans—except for Satchel Paige. He expressed doubt that the aging negro pitcher's health would allow him to continue in baseball.

Dents Fender Of Car, Leaves Note Explaining Why

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 28.—(AP)—The note tagged to the parked car with the smashed fender read: "Sorry, but my dog misbehaved."

Mrs. Evelyn Tmey, 39, of Moline, signed the note, then hurried to police to explain how she happened to back into the car parked behind.

It was all the fault of her dog.

Mrs. Tmey told police. Seems that house offers a chance for new plays and writers because it has less box office pressure to think about, says Theodore Hatton, chairman of the Department of Speech at Santa Barbara College.

THE CAMEO
By Virginia Teale Copyright, 1949 NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Hagar Blair is in jail charged with murder in which a valuable cameo seems to be a vital clue. Hagar has no alibi for the time of the death of either Martin Eater, blackmailer, or Sell O'Neill, one-time owner of the cameo. Hagar's assistant, Stephanie Smith, is meanwhile receiving a visit from Andrew Yakov who says he has letters that will clear Hagar. Stephanie will let him examine the cameo.

XXV
STEPHANIE lowered her eyes. When she looked up, she asked: "Would you allow someone else to be present while you looked at the locket? And will you give me the letters first?"
Yakov smiled wryly. "I will meet your conditions. I suppose you will have Mr. Reddy of the police department as witness?"
Stephanie nodded.
Yakov got up and walked to the door. He paused with his hand on the knob.
"It is agreed. I will get the letters and bring them to you. We will get this business done tonight." He bowed. "Until later, Miss—Smith!"
Stephanie locked the door behind him, stood there thinking for a few minutes, then walked swiftly to the phone and dialed Charlie Reddy's home number. She waited impatiently for 10 rings then slammed the phone back in its cradle and sank onto a chair.
Presently she strode across her bedroom to an old-fashioned oak desk, the flat top, kneehole type, which stood near the windows. Stephanie yanked at the handle which opened the typewriter compartment and the machine rose to a working level. She reached into the hole where the typewriter had been and brought out a small steel box, which she unlocked with a key which had been cached in a hollow of her typewriter. Inside the case was the silver cameo box.
She began to pry at the cushion of the box. When the velvet pad came up, she studied the numbers engraved in the bottom of the box. The first set, 10 and 4, flashed a message. She remembered Hagar's suggestion about the twelve points resembling a clock dial. She pressed down the fourth and tenth point of the cameo frame. The cameo flipped open to the pictures. With trembling hands she pressed the next set of numbers, 8 and 2. Nothing happened. Disappointed she studied the engraving. There was still the numeral 6. Idly she pressed the point on the frame which, on a clock dial, would correspond to 6.
Stephanie almost dropped the locket as the smooth gold back of the cameo snapped open like an old-fashioned watch and a small bit of paper fluttered to the floor.
BREATHLESS with curiosity and apprehension, she stooped and picked it up. Her shaking fingers smoothed the folds open.
A few words of Russian script, precisely printed, met her eyes. Translating, she repeated the words aloud:
"The Cherry Orchard, gold and morocco binding. Dr. Otto Ulrich, St. Petersburg College."
Stephanie shook her head—it was foolish! Why Dr. Ulrich? Any Russian school child would know that Chekov was the author of "The Cherry Orchard!"
She spent almost a half hour considering possibilities: Was this of such importance that two people had been killed because of it? And, most important, was Yakov the killer. She must tell Hagar. She made her decision and left the house. After all, she told herself, the town's main street was only a couple of blocks down the hill.
Walking swiftly, her eyes straight ahead on the cheerful lights of town, she did not notice the unnatural swaying and bending of a nearby pepper tree, nor the long, narrow shadow that materialized several yards behind her. The shadow disappeared and reappeared at intervals, always behind her and gradually lessening the distance.

HEADLIGHTS coming up the hill threw their glare onto her red coat. It roared into a U-turn and came to a stop beside her.
"Going my way?" asked a fine, sturdy voice.
Stephanie laughed in relief. "I am if you are going to the jail."
Charlie Reddy hopped out and held the door open. "Jail's our destination, lady!"
As the car glided slowly down the hill, he said: "May I suggest you don't go traipsing around alone and on foot while we still have a murderer at large? We haven't yet discovered any reason why either of the murders have been committed. The cameo seems mixed up in this pretty thoroughly and—while we're in the warnings department—let me direct your attention to its present possessor!"
Stephanie squirmed a bit and told about Yakov's insistence upon seeing the cameo.
"Did he threaten you?"
"Not exactly. But he did call me 'Miss Serenov' with a kind of knowing leer, as though he'd found out something I was hiding. And he told me that he had some papers or letters that would get Hagar out of jail."
"He did! Chief Peters'll have that guy for concealing evidence. Wonder what he's got? Did he say anything more than that?"
"Well, he made a bargain with me. He let me examine the cameo in exchange for the letters." She looked at Reddy thoughtfully for a moment and then added: "But I've found what he's looking for, I think. And yet, I don't understand why it would be important. I want to talk to Hagar about it."
Reddy's eyes were reproachful: "How about me? Can't you trust me with it?"
Stephanie impulsively pressed his arm. "Of course I can. But why not come in with me to see Hagar? Then I can tell you both at the same time."

Indiana Man Is Named Corn King

Servais Reports No Delinquency For Three Months

Major Henry Servais, probation officer, reports that, assuming that December does not run below average in delinquency, the last half of 1949 will be a period of which Morgan county can well be proud. No new cases have been brought before the courts for the last three months.

This places Morgan county in one of the highest brackets in the state. The reason for this, the Major states, is that the period of readjustment in youth is well under way and that the effects created and left by the war period are gradually being ironed out and youth is once again taking its place in constructive living.

It is sincerely hoped that the youth of Morgan county will realize the spiritual values of the Christmas holiday season and that they will cooperate in keeping our county proud of its young citizens.

William Skadden Speaks On Budget To C.O.P. Women

William Skadden of Springfield, noted minister, lecturer and author, spoke at the meeting of the Morgan county Women's Republican club Monday afternoon at the Dunlap hotel. He was introduced by Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn, program chairman.

During the business session officers were elected, with Mrs. R. Y. Rowe, vice president, presiding. A sum of $10 was voted for the community chest.

Mrs. Mable Olson was in charge of the social hour, assisted by Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn, Mrs. Roy Patterson and Mrs. Cester Colton. Mrs. R. Y. Rowe, Mrs. John Deem and Mrs. A. R. Gregory poured tea, and music was furnished by Mrs. Gaylord Swisher, accompanied by Mrs. G. W. Webster.

Mr. Skadden brought out the point that the individual is the important unit in a democracy and therefore should share in its gains and losses and not a few in power. He discussed the high cost of maintenance of the present government and said that it was being paid by taxes. His conclusion was that the federal budget should be lowered to a more reasonable amount, since the government was set up to benefit the masses and not a few in power.

Officers elected by the club were: Mrs. Ilma Brown Cline, president; Mrs. Ray Patterson, vice president; Mrs. L. L. Edlen, secretary; Mrs. Albert Hall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Earl Hembrough, treasurer.

County vice presidents are Miss Flora Hall of Alexander, Mrs. James Woods of Waverly, Mrs. Charles James of Meredosia, Mrs. Sam Hiram of Murrayville, Mrs. John Henry of Woodson, Mrs. Clark Stevenson of the rural districts and Mrs. W. C. Calhoun of Franklin.

BABY DOZES IN FIREPROOF NURSERY

By Helen Armstrong

In fact, Baby Warren is too sleepy and too content to respond to the enthusiastic admiration of his father, Master Black, who was born on Nov. 21, and he was among the first occupants of Our Saviour's nursery in its new location in the fireproof section of the third floor. This four-unit department has two rooms for sixteen bassinets, a scrub room, and an examining room, to which the nurse, in sterilized gown and cap, brings the baby for the doctor to see.

Young Warren David is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Black, 406 South Kosciusko. Already his father is seeing the tiny hands of his boy at the wheel of a late model car, for Mr. Black is salesman for the Cornbelt Chevrolet Co.

Mrs. Black's ambitions are of another sort. She would like her son to find a bride "deep in the heart of Texas," at Brady, where her Yankee husband discovered her.

Mrs. Black was born on Nov. 21, and he was among the first occupants of Our Saviour's nursery in its new location in the fireproof section of the third floor. This four-unit department has two rooms for sixteen bassinets, a scrub room, and an examining room, to which the nurse, in sterilized gown and cap, brings the baby for the doctor to see.

Miss Waller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, White Hall.

Granderson Seymour of 927 S. Main street struck a trailer being pulled by the 1939 Oldsmobile sedan of Harold Willis of Clinton at 7:22 p.m. Monday, injuring himself and his companion badly and completely wrecking his car. The car, a 1935 Ford, went into the ditch and over the south bank after blowing out a tire.

Mr. Seymour, 50, is in Our Saviour's hospital with internal injuries and fractured ribs. Miss Maude Wyatt, 61, also of 927 S. Main street, who was in the automobile with him, suffered a fractured left leg but was released from the hospital with the leg in a cast.
